Clerkship Evaluation: APPE General Elective

General overview

The student will be graded on the following 10 competencies. Each is worth between 5-20% of the final grade. Students will receive a numerical grade at their midpoint and final assessment. The final numerical grades will be multiplied by the percentage and added together to determine a final letter grade. Final letter grades will conform to the University grading scale.

A 90-100 B+ 86-89 B 80-85 C+ 76-79 C 70-75 D 60-69 F 0-59

How to apply scoring

90-100: Student demonstrated exceptional skills in this area; was extremely consistent; met all objectives and far exceeded the expectations of the preceptor.

80-89: Student demonstrated very good skills in this area; was above average in consistency; met most objectives and exceeded the expectations of the preceptor.

70-79: Student demonstrated satisfactory skills in this area; was average in consistency; met some objectives and met the expectations of the preceptor.

60-69: Student needs improvement in this area; was somewhat inconsistent; met few objectives and met few of the expectations of the preceptor.

<60: *Student needs significant improvement in this area; was inconsistent and did not meet the expectations of the preceptor; and/or student did not act in a professional manner or demonstrate motivation or a professional work ethic.

Please provide the R.Ph. name, license number, and NABP e-Profile ID number to receive CE Credits if different from above.
