ABOUT US

Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital Somerset (RWJS) is a 365 bed acute-care community hospital located in Somerville, NJ. The hospital is a major teaching site for Rutgers University and is also home to the Somerset Family Medicine Residency Program.

RWJS has earned significant national recognition for clinical quality and patient safety, including the prestigious Magnet[®] Award for Nursing Excellence and “Most Wired” designation by Hospitals and Health Networks Magazine. The Joint Commission and the New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services have designated RWJS as a Primary Stroke Center. The Joint Surgery Center has earned the Joint Commission’s Gold Seal of Approval for total knee and total hip replacement surgery. RWJS is dedicated to quality service and strives to incorporate the strongest evidence and most up to date technology into patient care.

SERVICES PROVIDED

RWJ Somerset’s Pharmacy Department provides advanced and focused services to the surrounding communities of Central New Jersey 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Integrated computer systems and automated dispensing technology are available hospital wide.

The Pharmacy Department is actively involved in the enhancement of patient care, protocol development and implementation, drug information, continuing education seminars, and preceptorship of students and pharmacy residents.

PROGRAM GOALS

The intent of the program is to provide eligible P4 students with a diversified block of advanced pharmacy practice experiences (APPE) in an acute-care environment.

Upon completion of the program, the student will have gained:

- ▶ Knowledge and skills necessary to function as an active contributor to patient care as a member of the healthcare team.
- ▶ Experience that will prepare him/her for life in a postgraduate training program
